JUDGING (CONTINUED):

- 1) Performances will be solo. An accompanist is required for instruments other than Piano. It is the student's responsibility to provide and arrange for his/her own accompanist. Upon request, a stipend of $50 is available to finalists that will use an accompanist.
- 2) Finalists should arrive by 1:15 PM and report to the Music Chair. The Music Chair will determine the order of student presentations.
- 3) Students will furnish a copy of the music pieces for each of the 3 judges (3 total copies). Students will furnish their own instruments, other than the piano, which will be provided by The Monday Clubhouse Conservancy. Each student will perform the classical piece and contrasting selection submitted with the application to determine the range of the student's ability. All music must be memorized and applicants must wear appropriate performance attire.
- 4) The total presentation time for each applicant is limited to 10 minutes.
- 5) Three impartial qualified judges will judge the applicants on qualities such as tone quality, technique, interpretation, intonation, phrasing, dynamics, accuracy, stage deportment and memorization.
- 6) The first, second and third place winners will be announced at the conclusion of judging Sunday, February 27, 2022. No tie scores will be considered and the decisions of the judges are final. This event is free and open to the public, however donations to The Monday Clubhouse Conservancy Fine Arts Program are greatly appreciated.

PRESENTATION & RECOGNITION LUNCHEON:

Winners will perform one of their selections March 7, 2022 from 12:00-1:15 PM during the regular luncheon meeting of The Monday Club. The student winners and one guest are guests of The Monday Clubhouse Conservancy for lunch.

The 1st or 2nd place winner may be invited to appear as a guest artist with the San Luis Chamber Orchestra at a concert. Determination of eligibility and music will be considered based on selections chosen for the competition. The winner would perform one movement of a concerto or a single movement composed for the orchestra and solo instrument.
